Chicago, Ill., July 14.-Washington wound up its five-games series here with the White Sox to-day by breaking even. The champions captured the first game, 3 to 1, but with a four-game lead over Cleveland in sight they stubbed their toe | Chicago at Philadelphia. ad dropped the second, 3 to 5.

Frank Smith wanted to be an iron man ad pitch both games. He got away with the opener in nice shape, letting the ationals down with only three hits. He tched six innings of the second game, when a split finger compelled him to retire with the score a tie, at 3 to 3. Owen took the ambitious slinger's place and was swatted heavily in the eighth round, two doubles and a triple by Delehanty and Nill and a triple by John Anderson giving the tail-enders two runs and the game. Case Patten held tightly to his comfortable margin, and there was little chance to rally by the Sox.
